Parents' Association IBCA (International Bilingual Classes Association)

The parents of the pupils become members of the IBCA when their child is accepted into the bilingual programme and pay a current fee of € 500 per year to cover part of the costs.

The fees are used for:

- + Native Speaker salaries
- + English textbooks, literature and other teaching materials
- + Partial costs of Cambridge exams
- + Optional courses and special projects
- + Partial financial support of language trips

All parents are encouraged to join the IBCA committee, which closely cooperates with the bilingual teaching team.
